Suggestions/comments for future students participating in your program:

What did you learn about yourself and your culture while you were abroad?

What was the most rewarding aspect of your experience abroad? What was the most challenging aspect of your experience abroad?

To what extent do you agree or disagree with the following statements:

	Strongly Disagree	Disagree	Neither Agree nor Disagree	Agree	Strongly Agree
My study abroad experience changed my perception of U.S. culture and its citizens.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
By studying abroad, I gained confidence in my ability to adapt to new situations.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Through the personal interactions I have abroad, I gained confidence in my ability to communicate with people from cultures different from my own.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Now that I've studied abroad, I wonder why we always emphasize what makes people different. U.S. Americans aren't so different from the people in my host	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/> country.

When I examine a problem, I usually think about it from more than one cultural point of view.

Now that I've traveled abroad, I realize how much better we have it in the U.S.

My life is enriched by my relationships with people from different backgrounds and experiences.

I would recommend my study abroad program to other Edgewood students.
